

Rebecca E. Weirick

President and CEO, Reddot Consulting Group LLC

Rebecca (Becky) Weirick is the former Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Procurement, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics and Technology. She oversees all aspects of procurement from the acquisition of: life cycle management and sustainment of Army weapon systems, equipment, research and development, test and evaluation, logistics, fielding, to disposition. As the Functional Career Representative for Contracting, she oversees the recruitment, training, certification and professional development of the 8,000+ Army military and civilian contracting workforce, worldwide.

Previously, Ms. Weirick served as the Senior Services Manager (SSM) and Civilian Deputy to the DASA(P). She provided leadership in the acquisition of Army services and was responsible for a portfolio of more than $200 billion in contracts across the Army.