

Blake Allison
CEO
Employers Health Network

Blake Allison joined Employers Health Network (EHN) as Executive Vice President in October of 2020 with a focus on growing new markets, in market sales, the strategic direction of the company, and overall operations. Blake is focused on developing partnerships with large integrated delivery systems focused on cultivating their direct-to-employer (D2E) strategy. Prior to joining EHN, Blake served as the Chief Executive Officer of Southeastern Health Partners in Greenville, SC, a joint-ventured clinically integrated network between three delivery systems in the region with over 2,000 providers and is responsible for the overall strategic direction and value-based performance of the company. Blake assumed this role in April of 2018 and has led Southeastern Health Partners through a growth initiative which has nearly doubled the total lives under management in both the commercial and Medicare Advantage space. In two years in the Medicare Shared Savings Program, Southeastern Health Partners has delivered over $15 million of savings to the Medicare program while achieving an aggregate quality score of greater than 90%.

Prior to joining Southeastern Health Partners, Blake served as the Chief Operating Officer of the Baylor Scott & White Quality Alliance in Dallas, TX. The Baylor Scott & White Quality Alliance is a clinically integrated network of providers comprised of more than 6,000 primary and specialty care physicians, 46 hospitals, 29 post-acute care facilities, retail pharmacy clinics, and other healthcare providers associated with Baylor Scott & White Health. The Baylor Scott & White Quality Alliance had value-based contracts with over 400,000 covered lives spanning Medicare and commercial products.

Blake's experience spans multiple settings from physician consulting to large integrated delivery systems through various parts of the country.

Blake received a Bachelor of Science in Education from Baylor University in Waco, TX, and a Master of Science in Healthcare Administration from Trinity University in San Antonio, TX.
