

Eugenie Guillot
Vice President
Lockton Companies

Eugenie joined Lockton in the fall of 2015 after spending nine years working in the health insurance industry. She started her career in the insurance industry on the property casualty side and moved to healthcare in 2006. She held a senior leadership role for Coventry Health Care and Aetna as the leader of the sales and service teams for Louisiana, Tennessee, Mississippi, and Arkansas. Her extensive knowledge of healthcare cost management and Health Care Reform makes her uniquely qualified to help business owners develop effective strategies for their employee benefit plans and communications.

Eugenie grew up in South Louisiana and obtained her Bachelor of Science degree in marketing from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette where she minored in French. She resides in Louisiana with her husband and actively supports many worthy charitable organizations.
